

Proper Use of a Disabled Parking Permit

Do...

- ♿ Have permit registration and Florida driver license/i.d. card with you at all times.
- ♿ Park properly in disabled parking area.
- ♿ Make sure permit is not expired.
- ♿ Hang permit on the rearview mirror of your parked vehicle.

Remove permit before driving

Hang permit
so placard number and expiration date can be seen

- ♿ Get permit replaced immediately if lost.
- ♿ Return permit to the Tax Collector's office if permit is no longer needed.

Improper Use of a Disabled Parking Permit

Don't...

- ♿ Use an expired permit.
- ♿ Drive with permit hanging on rearview mirror. You can be fined for obstruction to driver's view.
- ♿ Use someone else's permit (including a relative) unless they are traveling with you.
- ♿ Let anyone else use your permit including close family members and relatives if you are not riding with them.
- ♿ Park in an Access Aisle (striped area). Fine for parking in Access Aisle is $250 even with a permit.
- ♿ Put permit on dashboard with the expiration date covered up.

Did You Know...

Any Florida resident who qualifies for a permanent disabled parking placard and owns or leases a vehicle is eligible to receive a disabled person's license plate in lieu of the parking placard.