

I, _____ with Florida commercial driver license number of _____ self-certify that I fall under the following category. (Circle One)

(A) Non-excepted Interstate - I operate or expect to operate in interstate commerce and am required to maintain federal medical certification. (Medical Card Required)

(B) Excepted Interstate – I operate or expect to operate in interstate commerce, but engage exclusively in operations that qualify me for exception from the requirement to maintain federal medical certification.

- (1) Driving for a federal, State, or local government agency;
- (2) Occasional transportation of personal property by individuals neither for compensation nor in the furtherance of a commercial enterprise;
- (3) Transport of medical patients or human corpses;
- (4) Emergency operations;
- (5) Custom harvesting;
- (6) Beekeeping.

(C) Non-excepted Intrastate – I operate or expect to operate only in intrastate commerce and am required to meet State of Florida medical certification requirements. (Medical Card Required).

(D) Excepted Intrastate - I operate or expect to operate only in intrastate commerce, but engage exclusively in operations that qualify me for exception from State of Florida medical certification requirements.

- (1) Transporting agricultural or forestry products between the farm or place of harvest and a market or first place of storage;
- (2) Driving CMVs owned by electric or telephone utilities within 200 miles of where the vehicle is based;
- (3) Operating private school busses with seating for fewer than 24 passengers;
- (4) Operating as a driver/salesman within 100 miles of your workplace when CMV operation is incidental to your job and on the condition you have had no traffic conviction in the past 3 years.

Note: Those certifying in non-excepted interstate or intrastate commerce (Category A or C) must also ensure their medical documentation is on file with the state issuing agency and that it remains current. Failure to present valid medical documentation when required will result in the denial of the issuance or renewal of the CDL. Failure to maintain current medical documentation on file may result in CDL disqualification. If you self-certify in a category exempt from medical certification requirements (Category B or D) and later change to a non-exempt type of operation (Category A or C), you must re-certify in the appropriate category and provide proof of valid medical certification to avoid potential enforcement actions.
